

Enriching Incentives & Boutique Retreats

Australia's Spiritual Heart

Renowned as the spiritual heart of Australia, the 'Red Centre' in the Northern Territory is rich in Aboriginal culture and rugged outback beauty. Australia's most recognisable natural icon, Uluru (Ayers Rock) is the region's gem and the sacred red rock domes of Kata Tjuta (The Olgas) stand nearby. Explore the desert wilderness with expert guides, spend time learning the ancient creation stories of the land's indigenous custodians and encounter an expansive living cultural landscape, rich in heritage.

Nestled on a secluded dune top at the gateway to dual World Heritage listed Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park is Longitude 131°. A unique luxury campsite, Longitude offers an unfettered immersion and connection with the outback in the purest sense. Specialising in intimate residential conferences, leisure focused incentives and celebratory events, Longitude 131° promises an unforgettable encounter with this spirited land.

Experience the outback in luxury and style

THIS ROCK APPEARS MORE WONDERFUL EVERY TIME I LOOK AT IT, AND I MAY SAY IT IS A SIGHT WORTH RIDING EIGHTY-FOUR MILES OF SPINIFEX SANDHILLS TO SEE.

WILLIAM CHRISTIE GOSS, 1873

UNPARALLELED VISTAS

All Inclusive Luxury

A dune top retreat with views of Uluru... a simple description of a breathtaking destination. Planning a group stay at Longitude is similarly simple with all gourmet dining, premium beverages, in-suite bar, expert guided tours and return airport transfers included. The arrangements are seamless and ultimately the reward all yours.

Accommodation

With just fifteen contemporary pavilions, sleeping up to thirty guests, the vibe is intimate and civilised with an earthy elegance. Inside the palatial tents, luxury awaits – objets d'art pay homage to the early Australian pioneers. Air conditioning cools you, a mini bar sustains you, music soothes you, whilst a private bathroom and shower refresh and revitalise.

High canopy ceilings and one entirely glass wall provide unparalleled private views of Uluru. The flick of a bedside switch raises the blinds to reveal the spectacular moods of the ancient monolith at sunrise. Nothing distracts or intrudes.

King beds* are centrally positioned beneath the tent's apex. A sumptuous day bed and lounge chair offer new perspectives to drink in the view, and a small desk equipped with iPad, wireless internet and MP3 input for entertainment ensure connection with today's technology is available, if desired. Complimentary in-suite bar, bathrobes, premium amenities, safe, telephone and twice daily housekeeping including signature turn down service complete the in-tent experience.

Four pavilions enable twin bed capacity*

A Unique Campsite

The Dune House, with its panoramic view of the desert and Uluru, is the hub of Longitude 131°. Dining and entertaining takes place in the impressive Restaurant and Bar, where guests gather to relax whilst swapping stories of the day's adventures. A tranquil library with business facilities invites quiet contemplation and a petite boutique offers a stylish selection of take-home mementos.

Adjacent to the Dune House, an outdoor pool with terrace is an oasis amongst the sand dunes, inviting refreshment and total immersion in the pristine surroundings. The Dune Top lookout provides the perfect place for drinking in the stunning vistas at sunrise and sunset.

AUTHENTIC ADVENTURES

Business Facilities

The Dune House may be utilised for small meetings and conferences providing a unique venue for business discussions when staying on an exclusive basis. Alternatively meetings of any size may be held at the Uluru Meeting Place function centre at the nearby Voyages Ayers Rock Resort (additional charges apply). Complimentary wireless internet is available throughout the lodge. Standard equipment such as whiteboard and flipchart may be arranged. Additional hire fees may apply for specialist equipment.

World Class Dining

Longitude 131° offers the best of contemporary Australian cuisine, with an emphasis on simple, quality produce and local flavours to mirror the tranquil, spiritual outback surrounds. The menu changes daily, according to the seasons.

Dine and relax in the Dune House, with all the comforts of home and one of the most spectacular views in the world – Uluru. Elegant interiors and personal service ensure a memorable dining experience. Comfortably seating up to the lodge maximum, table sizes may be varied for each meal of the day. The beautifully laid, standalone tables may also be joined together for a grand table dinner celebration. For larger groups, a cocktail style function is also possible with additional guests staying at the nearby Ayers Rock Resort (surcharge applies).

All beverages, both alcoholic and non alcoholic are included in the rate at Longitude and selected wines sourced from Australia's finest wine regions are served with lunch and dinner. A select cellarmasters list of vintage wines and French Champagnes is additional. Sunset drinks are served each evening, either at the lodge or in the wild and provide a wonderful opportunity for guests to enjoy an outback sundowner, whilst swapping personal discoveries of the day.

BILLION STAR DINING

Table 131° is an unforgettable dining experience, not to be missed. Dine out on sumptuous outback fare and discover the wonders of the southern night sky. Listen to the sounds of the desert and be mesmerised by the movement and songs of an ancient culture by firelight. Table 131° is subject to weather and climatic conditions, particularly during the peak summer months.

As the evening dining venue alternates between the Dune House and Table 131°, there is an opportunity to experience either option on an exclusive basis on opposing evenings. Additional costs apply.

Rates include all dining and premium beverages (cellarmasters list additional).

Specialist Group Dining

Exclusive use of the lodge is essential for celebratory groups requiring special themed events, public speaking and large group dining elements. Application for waiver may be made based on group dynamic and needs. In this instance an additional fee for sole use event catering and alternate touring program may be required depending on the group size. Longitude does not host casual/external functions. The lodge must be booked in conjunction with the special event. Please refer to the Group Policy for further information.

Special Event Catering

With exclusivity comes flexibility. A surcharge may apply for themed dinners or events held outside the Dune House that require additional set up.

Discover the world's most ancient culture

THE FEELING THAT 'I CAN HAVE ALMOST ANYTHING I DESIRE', IS BALANCED, REFRESHINGLY, WITH A COMPLETE ABSENCE OF OSTENTATION.

RUGGED BEAUTY

Experiences

At Longitude 131° guests take 'the road less travelled' to explore the living and cultural landscapes of Uluru and Kata Tjuta. Longitude offers an exceptional complimentary touring program, designed exclusively for guests.

Signature Experiences | included in the tariff

- Witness the remarkable changing colours of the desert landscape and the spectacular sight of Uluru and Kata Tjuta at sunrise and sunset.
- Take a tour of the Cultural Centre and visit the Yulara Township and Mulgara Gallery.
- Journey along the Mala Walk and as day transforms into night, marvel at Kantju Gorge where the walls of the monolith are set ablaze with the light of the setting sun.
- Take a guided tour of Walpa Gorge and learn the natural history of Kata Tjuta, created over eons of time.
- Discover the wonders of the Southern night sky at Table 131°, an exclusive, unforgettable dining event in a desert setting under a canopy of stars.

Experiences are provided on an intimate shared basis with fellow guests at scheduled times (unless booking is exclusive use). Times are seasonal and subject to sunrise and sunset which vary throughout the year, weather permitting. Private touring is available to groups who do not have exclusive use of the Lodge. Additional costs and conditions apply.

Specialist Experiences | additional charges apply

There are a number of unique activities and entertainment options available at an additional cost – any of which can be incorporated to create a truly memorable incentive at Longitude 131°. An amazing helicopter flight over Uluru or Kata Tjuta is the only way to fully appreciate the scale and grandeur of this spectacular region. Take your group on an exhilarating Harley Davidson motorcycle tour around the base of Uluru or meander through the rich red sand dunes atop a camel to watch the awe inspiring backdrop of Uluru and Kata Tjuta change colour as the sun rises or sets.

A range of private charters, off the beaten track, invite exploration of the outback and beyond. Enjoy lunch atop the impressive peak of Mount Connor or journey to Kings Canyon to marvel at the mighty chasm and refresh in the lush, palm-fringed oasis.

Indigenous cultural performers, storyteller, artists and musicians may also be engaged to enhance the group experience at Longitude 131°.

CONNECT WITH COUNTRY

Red Ochre Spa

Indulge and relax right in the heart of the central Australian outback with a visit to the serene Red Ochre Spa. Located within Sails in the Desert Hotel, at the nearby Ayers Rock Resort, Longitude 131° provides return transfers to and from the Spa, which offers a range of rejuvenating treatments. In-tent treatments can also be arranged.

Access

Longitude 131° is located on a secluded sand dune close to the boundary of the Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. Just three hours' flight from most Australian capital cities, regular flights are available to Ayers Rock Airport (AYQ) with Australia's major domestic airlines. Virgin Australia operates daily flights directly to Ayers Rock Airport from Sydney. Jetstar (Qantas code share) also flies directly to Ayers Rock Airport on selected days. Qantas operates daily flights to Ayers Rock Airport via Alice Springs from Sydney. Qantas also offers direct daily flights from Cairns and Alice Springs. All three airlines provide connecting flights from most major domestic destinations. For more information visit Getting There.

Transfers

Longitude 131° operates complimentary transfers with fellow guests, connecting with all Ayers Rock Airport flights. Private group transfers can be arranged at an additional cost.

For groups seeking a more scenic arrival or spectacular departure, helicopter transfers are available from Ayers Rock Airport to the nearby Longitude 131° helipad (additional cost applies).

Climate

The semi-arid climate of the Uluru region makes for great travelling conditions. Warm, sunny days with minimal rainfall are the norm for much of the year, allowing enjoyment of the stunning desert landscapes and rock formations. Typical desert weather patterns make for reasonable fluctuations in temperature between day and night. During the summer months, average temperatures range from 35°C during the day to 18°C overnight. In the winter months, the average daytime temperature is 22°C and 0°C overnight.

Communications

Complimentary wireless internet is available throughout the lodge and mobile reception is offered by all carriers.

Environmental Principles

Longitude 131° is arguably one of the finest and most exclusive luxury wilderness camps in the world, offering discerning travellers an experience unlike any other in Australia. It is also accredited as 'Advanced ecoCERTIFIED' under Ecotourism Australia's internationally recognised certification program.

DESERT LUXE

Group Policy

At Longitude 131° a group is defined as five or more luxury tents travelling together. As an intimate and boutique property some special conditions apply when making group reservations. Groups of nine or more tents are usually only accepted on an exclusive use basis. Please refer to the Group Policy for full terms and conditions.

Child Policy

Longitude 131° welcomes children ten years and over. Child rate applies 10-17 years inclusive. Not applicable for exclusive use bookings.

Contact Us

The sense of infinity has always been profound, for the original inhabitants and those who came later. For those still to come, a transcendent experience awaits. For more information or to reserve your stay at Longitude, please contact Baillie Lodges.

E groups@baillielodges.com.au

T +61 2 9918 4355

W longitude131.com.au

Find your sanctuary

LONGITUDE 131°
ULURU-KATA TJUJA